A close-up photograph of a white, rectangular electrical outlet with two standard North American slots, mounted on a light-colored, textured wall. The outlet is centered in the frame and has a simple, clean design. The wall behind it has a fine, woven texture. The lighting is even, highlighting the outlet's form against the wall.

A white electrical outlet is mounted on a wood-paneled wall. A black power cord is plugged into the bottom socket and runs down a wooden desk. The outlet is a standard two-prong type. The wall has vertical wood paneling. The desk is made of dark wood. A white object, possibly a computer monitor, is partially visible on the right side of the frame.
